Respectfully submitted,

ORLANDO RICHARDSON.	} School Board of Tuftonboro.
JOHN W. HAYLEY.
DANIEL B. PALMER.

It is pleasing to the members of the Board to add that, with little exception, the schools of the town have been very successful during the year. Good discipline has been maintained; the teachers have proved themselves patient, faithful and efficient; and the scholars have made good progress in their studies. One marked and favorable indication has been the very small amount of criticism and fault-finding prevalent in the community. As a rule, every one has spoken well of the schools.

On the whole, we beg to congratulate our fellow-citizens upon the satisfactory showing and status of our schools.

ORLANDO RICHARDSON.	} School Board of Tuftonboro.

Tuftonboro, N. H., February 15, 1907.

We hereby certify that we have examined the foregoing accounts of the School Board and Treasurer of School District of Tuftonboro, and find them correct and properly vouched.

JAMES A. BENNETT.	}	Auditors.
JOHN A. EDGERLY.

Remarks.

The School Board are pleased to report a fairly prosperous year for the schools of Tuftonboro. Two circumstances have, however, proved real hindrances to the prosperity of certain schools.

One is the unexcused absence of some of the scholars for days and weeks at a time. No argument is needed to show that such absences are very detrimental, not only to the truants themselves, but also to the general interests and progress of the schools thus depleted. The law of the State places in the hands of the School Board, not only the assignment of scholars to the various schools, but also the care and duty of securing the punctual and faithful attendance of the pupils.

To this end, the law provides for the appointment of Truant Officers, with large powers in dealing with pupils who attend irregularly or who absent themselves altogether. Obviously, if parents would do their duty, there would be little or no need of the services of the Truant Officer. And how much pleasanter to bring about the desired result by moral suasion, without recourse to compulsion, even though that compulsion be legal and necessary.

The School Board would now and hereby most earnestly appeal to all parents of school children in the town to see to it carefully and conscientiously that your children attend school regularly. Do not allow them to be absent a single day, if the absence can possibly be avoided. Even one day's absence makes a sad break in a child's interest and progress in his studies. By taking care in the above respect, you will greatly aid the School Board in the discharge of their duties.

Another unfortunate circumstance is the change of teachers, which was unavoidable in several of the schools. Such a change, even when from an inferior to a better teacher, is always attended with some loss and detriment.

It need not be said that the Board have earnestly sought to avoid these changes, unless absolutely necessary.

And we sincerely trust that, in the future, occasion for such changes will be very infrequent.

In conclusion may we express the hope that cordial co-operation of all concerned, parents, teachers, pupils, and the School Board, may speedily bring the schools of our town to a much higher plane of efficiency and prosperity than they occupy at present.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. HAYLEY.	}	School Board of Tuftonboro.

 Report of Tuftonboro Free Library.

Some 95 books have been bought this season, and appended is a list of books purchased during 1905, 1906 and 1907. The cost of books is more than in former years, but we have endeavored to select books of a higher standard of excellence.

The reading public appreciate the use of the books, and especially the Summer people, who in turn make us donations of books, which is always appreciated by us.

We would especially speak of books given by A. W. Rollins, Cora E. Haley and C. W. Gilman.

Respectfully submitted,
